Defendants United States Agency for International Development and Henrietta Fore in her official capacity as its Administrator (collectively, "USAID"), United States Department of Health and Human Services and Michael O. Leavitt, in his official capacity as its Secretary, and United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and Julie Louise Gerberding in her official capacity as its Director (collectively, "HHS"), by their attorney Michael J. Garcia, United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, answer the second amended complaint upon information and belief as follows:

1. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 1 of the Second Amended Complaint.
2. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 2 of the Second Amended Complaint, except admit that Alliance for Open Society International, Incorporated ("AOSI") and Pathfinder

International (“Pathfinder”) are nongovernmental organizations that are based in the United States, and deny knowledge or information sufficient to state a belief as to the truth of the allegation that Open Society Institute (“OSI”; collectively with AOSI, “AOSI/OSI”) is a “not-for profit charitable foundation.”

3. State that paragraph 3 of the Second Amended Complaint purports to state a conclusion of law with respect to the jurisdiction and venue of this Court and, therefore, a response is not required. To the extent a response is required, denied.

4. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 4 of the Second Amended Complaint.

5. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 5 of the Second Amended Complaint.

6. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 6 of the Second Amended Complaint.

7. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 7 of the Second Amended Complaint, except admit that OSI has received funding from USAID in the past.

8. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 8 of the Second Amended Complaint.

9. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 9 of the Second Amended Complaint.

10. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 10 of the Second Amended Complaint.

11. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 11 of the Second Amended Complaint.

12. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 12 of the Second Amended Complaint.

13. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 13 of the Second Amended Complaint, except admit that Pathfinder receives funding from USAID and HHS.

14. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 14 of the Second Amended Complaint.

15. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 15 of the Second Amended Complaint.

16. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 16 of the Second Amended Complaint.

17. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 17 of the Second Amended Complaint.

18. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 18 of the Second Amended Complaint.

19. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 19 of the Second Amended Complaint.

20. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 20 of the Second Amended Complaint.

21. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 21 of the Second Amended Complaint.

22. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 22 of the Second Amended Complaint.

23. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 23 of the Second Amended Complaint.

24. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 24 of the Second Amended Complaint.

25. Admit the allegations contained in paragraph 25 of the Second Amended Complaint.

26. Admit the allegations contained in paragraph 26 of the Second Amended Complaint.

27. Admit the allegations contained in paragraph 27 of the Second Amended Complaint.

28. Admit the allegations contained in the first sentence of paragraph 28 of the Second Amended Complaint, and state that the allegations contained in the second sentence of paragraph 28 purport to characterize the capacity in which defendant Henrietta Fore is sued, and therefore, a response is not required.

29. Admit the allegations contained in paragraph 29 of the Second Amended Complaint.

30. Admit the allegations contained in paragraph 30 of the Second Amended Complaint.

31. Admit the allegations contained in paragraph 31 of the Second Amended Complaint.

32. Admit the allegations contained in the first sentence of paragraph 32 of the Second Amended Complaint, and state that the allegations contained in the second sentence of paragraph 32 purport to characterize the capacity in which defendant Michael O. Leavitt is sued, and therefore, a response is not required.

33. Admit the allegations contained in paragraph 33 of the Second Amended Complaint.

34. Admit the allegations contained in paragraph 34 of the Second Amended Complaint.

35. Admit the allegations contained in paragraph 35 of the Second Amended Complaint.

36. Admit the allegations contained in the first sentence of paragraph 36 of the Second Amended Complaint, and state that the allegations contained in the second sentence of paragraph 36 purport to characterize the capacity in which defendant Julie Louise Gerberding is sued, and therefore, a response is not required.

37. Admit the allegations contained in paragraph 37 of the Second Amended Complaint.

38. State that the allegations contained in paragraph 38 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to characterize the United States Leadership Against HIV/AIDS, Tuberculosis, and Malaria Act of 2003 (“Leadership Act”), 22 U.S.C. § 7601 et seq., for which no response is required, and respectfully refer the Court to the Act for a complete and accurate description of its contents and focus.

39. Admit the allegations contained in paragraph 39 of the Second Amended Complaint.

40. State that the allegations contained in paragraph 40 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to characterize certain provisions in the Leadership Act, including 22 U.S.C. § 7631(e), for which no response is required, and respectfully refer the Court to the Leadership Act and 22 U.S.C. § 7631(e) for a full and complete recitation of their contents, except deny that the Act “imposes” restrictions on entities seeking funding under the Act.

41. State that the allegations contained in paragraph 41 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to characterize the nature of Plaintiffs’ claims and therefore a response is not required.

42. State that the allegations contained in paragraph 42 purport to characterize the nature of a provision in the Leadership Act, 22 U.S.C. § 7631(f) (the “organizational eligibility restriction”) for which no responses is required, and respectfully refer the Court to the Leadership Act and its provisions for a full and complete recitation of their contents, except admit that the Act does not define “opposing prostitution.”

43. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 43 of the Second Amended Complaint, and respectfully refer the Court to the full legislative history of the Leadership Act for a full description of its contents.

44. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to state a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 44 of the Second Amended Complaint, except deny the government “force[s] them to adopt a policy position.”

45. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 45 of the Second Amended Complaint, and aver that between February 2004 and June 2005, USAID did not require that grant or cooperative agreements with United States-based non-governmental organizations, which were funded with funds under the Leadership Act, contain certain language that was set forth in USAID Acquisition & Assistance Policy Directive (AAPD) 05-04 (June 9, 2005), providing, among other things, that “as a condition of entering into this agreement or any subagreement, a non-governmental organization or public international organization recipient/subrecipient must have a policy explicitly opposing prostitution and sex trafficking,” and respectfully refer the Court to AAPD 05-04 for a complete and accurate recitation of its contents. Defendants further state that the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 45 refer to a purported draft opinion of the United States Department of Justice that, if made, would be protected by the attorney-client and other privileges and attorney work product doctrine.

46. State that the allegations contained in paragraph 46 of the Second Amended Complaint contain purported opinions of the United States Department of Justice that, if made, would be protected by the attorney-client and other privileges and attorney work product doctrine.

47. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 47 of the Second Amended Complaint, and aver, with respect to the second sentence of paragraph 47, that AAPD 05-04 provided that grant or cooperative agreements with United States-based non-governmental organizations, which were funded with certain funds under the Leadership Act, must contain certain language stating, among other things, that “as a condition of entering into this agreement or any subagreement, a non-governmental organization or public international organization recipient/subrecipient must have a policy explicitly opposing prostitution and sex trafficking,” and respectfully refer the Court to AAPD 05-04 for a full and accurate recitation of its contents

48. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 48 of the Second Amended Complaint, and aver that as of May 2005, HHS required that all new program announcements for its grant and cooperative agreements that were funded under the Leadership Act in 2005 contain a standard provision entitled “Prostitution and Related Activities,” providing, among other things, that, as a condition of funding, any funding recipients, including U.S.-based NGOs and non-U.S.-based NGOs “must have a policy explicitly opposing prostitution.” See, e.g., 70 Fed. Reg. 29759.

49. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 49 of the Second Amended Complaint, and aver that as of May 2005, HHS required that all new program announcements for its grant and cooperative agreements that were funded under the Leadership Act in 2005 contain a standard provision entitled “Prostitution and Related Activities,” providing, among other things, that, as a condition of funding, any funding recipients, including U.S.-based NGOs and non-U.S.-based NGOs “must have a policy explicitly opposing prostitution.” See, e.g., 70 Fed. Reg. 29759.

50. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 50 of the Second Amended Complaint to the extent that HHS has issued program announcements, such as 70 Fed. Reg. 29759.

51. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 51 of the Second Amended Complaint.

52. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 52 of the Second Amended Complaint.

53. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 53 of the Second Amended Complaint, and aver that Dr. Kent Hill, the then-acting assistant administrator of the USAID Bureau for Global Health, met with representatives of AOSI/OSI, during which he provided guidance on the conduct that would be inconsistent with having a policy explicitly opposing prostitution.

54. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 54 of the Second Amended Complaint.

55. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 55 of the Second Amended Complaint.

56. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 56 of the Second Amended Complaint, and aver that Christopher D. Crowley, a USAID Mission Director, sent a letter, dated October 7, 2005, to Galina Karmanova, of AOSI, and respectfully refer the Court to a copy of the October 7, 2005 letter for a complete and accurate description of its contents. See Declaration of Richard E. Rosberger, executed January 4, 2006, Exhibit D.

57. Deny the allegations contained in the first sentence of paragraph 57 of the Second Amended Complaint, and deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in the second sentence of paragraph 57.

58. Deny the allegations contained in the last sentence of paragraph 58 of the Second Amended Complaint, and deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 58.

59. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 59 of the Second Amended Complaint, except admit that members of Congress sent a letter to USAID, dated July 15, 2005, and respectfully refer the Court to a copy of that letter for a true and complete description of its contents, see Declaration of Rebekah Diller, executed September 22, 2005, Exhibit 10, attached to AOSI/OSI's Notice of Motion for Preliminary Injunction, and aver that USAID responded to the letter.

60. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 60 of the Second Amended Complaint.

61. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 61 of the Second Amended Complaint.

62. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 62 of the Second Amended Complaint

63. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 63 of the Second Amended Complaint.

64. The allegations contained in paragraph 64 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to characterize guidelines issued by HHS and USAID, for which no response is required, and respectfully refer the Court to the guidelines for a full and complete recitation of their contents.

65. The allegations contained in paragraph 65 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to characterize guidelines issued by HHS and USAID, for which no response is required, and respectfully refer the Court to the guidelines for a full and complete recitation of their contents.

66. The allegations contained in paragraph 66 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to characterize guidelines issued by HHS and USAID, for which no response is required, and respectfully refer the Court to the guidelines for a full and complete recitation of their contents.

67. The allegations contained in paragraph 67 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to characterize guidelines issued by HHS and USAID, for which no response is required, and respectfully refer the Court to the guidelines for a full and complete recitation of their contents.

68. The allegations contained in paragraph 68 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to characterize guidelines issued by HHS and USAID, for which no response is required, and respectfully refer the Court to the guidelines for a full and complete recitation of their contents.

69. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 69 of the Second Amended Complaint, except aver the guidelines were issued without the notice-and-comment procedures described in the Administrative Procedure Act.

70. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 70 of the Second Amended Complaint.

71. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 71 of the Second Amended Complaint, except deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 71 of the Second Amended Complaint with respect to how AOSI, OSI, or their clients feel they are affected.

72. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 72 of the Second Amended Complaint.

73. State that the allegations contained in paragraph 73 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to state conclusions of law with respect to the Leadership Act for which a response is not required, except deny that the any organizations seeking funding under the Leadership Act is forced to adopt a policy.

74. State that the allegations contained in paragraph 74 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to state conclusions of law with respect to the Leadership Act for which a response is not required.

75. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in the first sentence of paragraph 75 of the Second Amended Complaint.

76. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 76 of the Second Amended Complaint.

77. Admit the allegations in paragraph 77 of the Second Amended Complaint that, in many regions, HIV/AIDS infection and transmission rates are often concentrated in small populations of people engaged in high-risk behaviors, including prostitutes, trafficked humans and injecting drug users, and deny the allegations in the second sentence of paragraph 77 on the ground that they imply that there is uniformity of opinion on the best way to combat the spread of HIV/AIDS.

78. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 78 of the Second Amended Complaint on the ground that they imply that there is uniformity of opinion on the best way to combat the spread of HIV/AIDS.

79. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 79 of the Second Amended Complaint on the ground that they imply that there is uniformity of opinion on the best way to combat the spread of HIV/AIDS.

80. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 80 of the Second Amended Complaint.

81. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in the first sentence of paragraph 81 of the Second Amended Complaint, and deny the remaining allegations in the second sentence of paragraph 81.

82. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the reasons that the entities described in paragraph 82 of the Second Amended Complaint have taken the action that they have allegedly taken, and deny that the organizational eligibility restriction impedes efforts to fight the spread of HIV/AIDS.

83. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 83 of the Second Amended Complaint.

84. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 84 of the Second Amended Complaint.

85. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 85 of the Second Amended Complaint.

86. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 86 of the Second Amended Complaint.

87. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 87 of the Second Amended Complaint.

88. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 88 of the Second Amended Complaint.

89. Deny the allegation contained in paragraph 89 of the Second Amended Complaint, and respectfully refer the Court to AAPD 05-04, see Exhibit 3 to the declaration of Rebekah Diller, attached to AOSI/OSI Notice of Motion for Preliminary Injunction, for a full and complete recitation of its contents.

90. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 90 of the Second Amended Complaint.

91. State that the allegations contained in paragraph 91 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to state conclusions of law, for which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, denied.

92. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 92 of the Second Amended Complaint.

93. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 93 of the Second Amended Complaint, except admit that USAID maintains a five-year cooperative agreement with AOSI in the amount of $16,507,402.

94. State that the allegations contained in paragraph 94 of the Second Amended Complaint purport to state conclusions of law, for which no response is required, except admit that OSI is not a party to the cooperative agreement with USAID.

95. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 95 of the Second Amended Complaint.

96. Deny knowledge or information sufficient to state a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 96 of the Second Amended Complaint, except deny the allegations to the extent that they imply that any organization is compelled to speak.

97. Deny the allegations contained in paragraph 97 of the Second Amended Complaint, except admit that an e-mail, dated June 15, 2004, was sent from Robert Kushen, AOSI, to Kerry Pelzman, and aver that USAID responded to that e-mail, and respectfully refer the Court to the documents for a full and accurate recitation of their contents. See Declaration of Robert Kushen, executed September 16, 2005, Exhibit B, attached to AOSI/OSI Notice of Motion for Preliminary Injunction.
